

We urge you to reject the petition by the Consumer Banking Association to invalidate important portions of the Wisconsin No-Call List. the change the CBA is calling for will gut the protections the Wisconsin No-Call List offer to consumers. The most outrageous change would be to allow any affiliate of a company one does business with to subject you to telemarketing calls. Please reject the petition.